

Kindness Week at Massabesic High School February 13-17, 2017!

Despite the two snow days the week before February break, Massabesic High School, in conjunction with the other RSU 57 schools, recognized Kindness Week. To honor Kindness Week, over the intercom each day messages about kindness and quotes from famous people on the topic of kindness were heard.

Teachers also made note of the acts of kindness students performed by entering students into a random drawing. On Friday, four students names were drawn to receive a prize pack in honor of their good deeds. The four winners in the drawing were as follows: Mia Skowronski, Dilan McEaney, Edward Keane, and Sophia LaFrance. Congratulations to these four!

The other activity that occurred was a Kindness Writing Contest. Students submitted essays around the topic of kindness. If interested, the contest guidelines can be found here.

Judging the essays was challenging for there were several wonderful submissions, but Massabesic High School is pleased to announce that the winner of a $50 cash gift card is Acacia McAdam. Second place with a $25 cash gift card goes to Elijah Stitson. The first and second place essays are attached to the Weekly Memo for your reading enjoyment.

The MHS Guidance Office would like to thank all who participated in the Kindness Week activities. A special thanks goes to all students who submitted essays in the Kindness Writing Contest: (listed alphabetically) Samantha Howe; Acacia McAdam; Madison Richards; Mikel Souliere; Elijah Stitson; Abby Theobald; Grace Tutt; Lydia Wasina; Leah Zunser. Congratulations to all!

Pictured above, winners of the Random Acts of Kindness drawing